

- Course outcomes of English

Following are the titles of papers and their Course outcomes

- Written and Spoken Communication in English

After studying the paper students are able to understand English grammar,they can read,write and speak English effectively

- READING LITERATURE

After studying the paper students are able to understand the meaning of literature',its types and wellknown works of writers

- LEARNING LANGUAGE SKILLS

After studying the paper students are able to understand the meaning of prose and its eminent practitioners and their works,

- LITERATURE IN ENGLISH 1750-1900

After studying the paper students are able to understand different literary terms 'features of different ages of English literature

- INTRODUCTION TO LITERARY CRITICISM AND TERMS

After studying the paper students are able to understand the meaning of well-known Greek,Roman and Greek critics and their works ,different terminologies of literary criticism

The Structure of English

After studying the paper students are able to develop ,English communication. They are able to speak English with correct pronunciation .

Twentieth Century English Literature

After studying the paper students are able to understand twentieth century English literature ,is characteristics,major writers and their works

ENGLISH FOR ENTREPRENEURS

After studying the paper students are able to develop English communication and they can write letters,meeting agenda,applications and develop communication skills required for business communication.